WOMEN WITH WINGS CONCERT WILL BE INTERPRETED FOR THE DEAF

by Gail Summerville

You are cordially invited to the Annual Women With Wings concert on Saturday, April 30, at the First Presbyterian Church on the corner of Siskiyou and Walker St. in Ashland. Doors open at 6:30 for the 7 p.m. concert. Suggested donation (not required) is $10-$15 (no one will miss this opportunity because of being on a tight budget.)

Women With Wings was started in 1995 by women drawn together by their love of singing, and their desire to share songs of peace and justice with the broader community. At that time the choir decided to follow Holly Near's model of having her concerts ASL interpreted.

The name of the choir comes from the lyrics of two songs, "There's a river of birds in migration, a nation of women with wings" and "I keep wanting to spread my arms, wide like wings, breathe deep and sing for my life, sing for the earth, sing, sing, sing."

The group performs at various community events, such as the Annual National Aids Awareness Day. Many in the choir and audience find that the beauty, harmony and fun they experience in the music enriches their daily lives.

To ensure proper reserved seating and arrange for your ticket, please email or call Gail Summerville at serenecedars@gmail.com or 541-855-9930 (Please use relay service). We need to know if you need ASL interpreter as soon as possible.

VRI AND INTERPRETING NOTES

The VRI committee is still working on the Providence interpreting issue. The committee is now taking steps to help with this situation. The committee will work with Providence on making a budget case for VRI and interpreting. If you want to know more about the committee and its activities, please contact Bill Drobkiewicz, lead facilitator of the committee at outreach@dssso.org or info@dssso.org.

Also, if you are having problems with getting an interpreter or keeping communication access in the Rogue Valley, please contact Bill Drobkiewicz at the same addresses above.

Email is the first step in getting started - Bill will arrange a VP appointment through email. There are several steps in resolving the interpreter problem and these take time. Also, these steps are required as part of reporting and documentation. Be aware that Bill is working with Rosemary DiSiervi at Disability Rights Oregon on this issue.

SPECIAL SURVEY - ASL VIDEOS - HOW YOU USE 9-1-1 TO MAKE EMERGENCY CALLS

This is a good time to get your needs met whether you sign or lip read or both. Deadline to fill this survey is April 24. The survey with ASL videos is at <http://fcc.eaac.sgizmo.com/s3>. <http://www.fcc.gov/cgb/dro/EAAC> is the main page explaining the survey and new committee working to improve how we use 9-1-1 system.
